

TOP HISTORY DESTINATIONS:

Denmark

The happiest country in the world is a perfect destination for Denmark history trips for your students. Educational Destinations offers a variety of Denmark history trip opportunities. If your students are ready to learn about the Viking society, visit Elsinore Castle where William Shakespeare set his famous play Hamlet, or why King Christian X rode through the streets of Copenhagen every day during World War II, Educational Destinations will make your Denmark history trip rewarding and memorable. Filled with historical castles, manor houses and gardens, Denmark is one of the oldest states in Europe and the oldest kingdom in the world. When your group is done with the Viking ventures and the legends of the Great Danes who have helped shape Denmark's history, they will enjoy the Tivoli Gardens, Bakken Amusement Park, Legoland, Copenhagen Zoo, the Blue Planet, Djurs Summer Land and the National Museum. Although tiny in size, Denmark is big on history, culture, cooking and an incredible coastline, perfect for your next Educational Destinations adventure.
